Part-Time

News/Sports Reporter in Towns & Union Counties

Semi-retired? Between jobs? Simply wanting to change professions? Look no further than the North Georgia News and Towns County Herald.

Being a reporter never gets old, because new things are always happening. That makes for exciting work in these vibrant, growing communities of North Georgia.

Writing experience is preferred, and applicants must be able to meet deadlines, have reliable transportation and be willing to work some weekends and holidays.

To join our dynamic work environment, apply in person at 266 Cleveland Street in Blairsville, or email your resume to northgeorgianews-ken@hotmail.com. No calls please.
