

Bonafide...continued from Page 1A

Sheriff Mason said. "This will allow us to work in unison and better serve the citizens of the county and city."

"We have a good working relationship with the County," Chief Carroll said. "I've been here all together, with the Sheriff's Department and the city, for 21 years, and in all possibility, this is the first time that it's been done."

There has already been a recent incident where assistance was needed by the Sheriff's Department and the City was called in to help.

"The incident down on Smyrna Road the other day, back up came from the city officers," Sheriff Mason said.

"This partnership is key to effective law enforcement in this county," Chief Deputy John George added.

"When the teams work well together, we can provide a greater service to the Union County residents, and that is our goal," Chief George said.

Busts...continued from Page 1A

also recovered from the residence, along with marijuana, and synthetic marijuana, which led to more charges against Hinnenkamp. Hinnenkamp is being held without bond, Union County Jail records show. "We seized Hinnenkamp's 2004 Ford F-150 pickup due to its use as a delivery truck from methamphetamine," Sheriff Mason said. "His house was debt-free. We seized it too."

"Ledford was not present at the time of the search warrant execution at Hinnenkamp's home," the sheriff said. "He is still at large, but, we'll pick him up later."

Sheriff Mason asks for anyone with knowledge of Ledford's whereabouts to call the Sheriff's Office at (706) 439-6066.

All calls will be kept confidential, Sheriff Mason said.

In a separate incident, a drug investigation several months in the works has come to fruition, Sheriff Mason said.

Jamie Anderson, 29, of Blairsville, was charged with felony marijuana possession, Sheriff Mason said.

Cody Anderson

"On June 12th, the Narcotics Division executed a search warrant at Jamie Anderson's home, following an extensive investigation," the sheriff said. "They seized a felony amount of marijuana during the bust. Also, several prescription pills were recovered from within the residence. Crystal Anderson was released at the scene with charges pending.

Terry Anderson

"Jamie Anderson was arrested at the scene," Sheriff Mason said. "Terry Chris Anderson, Jamie Anderson's brother, and his wife, Cody Bennett Anderson were arrested by the Narcotics Division on June 14th related to the same months long investigation.

"Terry Anderson was charged with distribution of marijuana, his wife Cody Anderson was charged with possession of marijuana and party to a crime," Sheriff Mason said.

Jamie Anderson is being held without bond, Union County Jail records show.

Terry Anderson, 23, of 124 Daniel Way, Blairsville, is being held on $31,768 bond on the drug charges.

He has two probation holds as well, jail records show.

Cody Nicole Bennett Anderson, 26, of 124 Daniel Way, is being held on $11,768 bond on the drug and party to a crime charges, jail records show.

County...continued from Page 1A

The first item on the agenda was a Garden Week proclamation that was held from June 2nd - 8th.

"We had a beautiful arrangement in our office that they sent by," Union County Sole Commissioner Lamar Paris said. "We want to thank the Garden Club for all that they do to help beautify our area."

The next item was a contract accepted by Commissioner Paris between Union County and Winkler & Winkler, Inc. for construction of a 2,322 square foot addition to the Union County Senior Center for the amount of $207,577.88.

"They were the low bidder and they'll start construction right away, possibly next week," Commissioner Paris said.

Next up, Paris approved a five-year contract between Union County and Delta Fire Protection Systems, Inc. for annual inspection services for the fire alarm and sprinkler system at the Union County Courthouse and the Pat Haralson Civic Center at a cost of $900 for the fire alarm system and $860 for the sprinkler system.

Paris would then accept an agreement between the Enotah Judicial Circuit, Lumpkin, Towns, Union, and White Counties, to conduct activities for the Enotah Judicial Circuit's Juvenile Justice Project.

"The project is to keep juveniles out of detention centers and instead provide counseling and family intervention to catch the problems before they become too large," Commissioner Paris said.

A rental agreement was reached between Union County and the Georgia Department of Labor for approximately 550 square feet of office space located at 46 Hughes St. The lease is being renewed for an additional year, commencing on July 1 and expiring on June 30, 2014 at no cost to the Department of Labor.

A Sub-grant Award for the Mental Health Court project in the amount of $80,310 was made under the Accountability Courts State of Georgia grant program for a period from July 1 through June 30, 2014.

"This will be money coming through the Governor's office, but appropriated by the Georgia Legislature to help keep the mentally ill out of our jails, instead, providing them with local intervention programs and counseling," Commissioner Paris said.

A resolution to change the Union County Employee Fund signature card after two names were listed on the card, who are no longer employed by the county, and the resolution is to simply update the card.

Union County also added a seat-belt policy to the Personnel Policies and Procedures.

"This was requested by our insurance provider, in addition we have always insisted that our employees wear their seat-belts even if they're just going around the block," Commissioner Paris said.

Two appointments were made at the meeting. The first was the appointment of Judith Vaughn to the Union County Public Library Board of Trustees, taking the place of Jane Collins. Vaughn's term begins on July 1 and concludes June 30, 2014.

Bob Taylor was appointed to the Department of Family and Children's Board to fill the unexpired term of Donnie Kelley, whose term is due to expire on June 1, 2016.

A farm-winery alcohol license was issued to Odom Springs Vineyards, LLC located on Odom Road in Blairsville.

Finally, business licenses were granted to Cobb

Family Trust for Cabin Rental, Serenity Point for cabin rental, Two Wheels of Suches for a hotel/motel, Bear It All Cabin Rental, Are We Bear Yet for cabin rental, Choestoe Sanctuary Cabin Rental, 2's Company Farm Creek Cabins, Nevaeh Cabin Rentals, Majestic Mountain Getaways, Inc. for 25 cabins in Union County, Great Mountain Properties, Inc. for cabin rentals, and Blackbear Enterprises (hotel/motel).

The SugarBees at Peacock Playhouse

Usually, when individual musicians get together to form a group, one of the first things they do is decide what type of music is going to make them famous. Rock, Blues, R&B, Contemporary, you get the idea. But on Saturday, June 29th at 7 p.m., at the legendary Peacock Playhouse, The SugarBees, a musical variety group will take the stage, and what makes them famous is their "stand up and take notice" style and versatility.

They perform everything from Boogie, R&B, Blues, Beach, Contemporary and Classic hits, and you might want to put an exclamation point after "perform!"

Mary Vella, is the lead vocalist and she has the voice and the zeal to totally engage the crowd. Backing Mary are George Davis on guitar and vocals, Steve Rhinehardt on bass, Barris McWhite on keyboard and Fred Shaw, founder of the group, on percussion and vocals. The SugarBees are top-flight musicians with a dynamic live presentation. Their goal is to entertain, energize and excite their audience and you can experience The SugarBees live at The Peacock Playhouse, Saturday, June 29th at 7 p.m.

Tickets are $18 for adults and $10 for students 13 and up and are available by calling The Peacock Playhouse office at 828-389-2787 or by visiting one of these fine area merchants: Tiger's/Chinquapins, Hayesville; Anderson's, Hiwassee or The Curiosity Shop, Murphy.